

Text Codes – as you read the text, underline the portion of the text that you are making a connection with. Draw the symbol for the text code you are using and explain in the margin of the paper why you made that connection.

When you expected that

Very important idea/point made in the text

When something surprises you

When you make a connection with something/this reminds you of

When you have questions about something